and, if they both found themselves single at the age of thirty, well, why not? But when, a decade later, a man Holly hasn't seen for years says she's signed a contract and has to marry him, she realises exactly why not. Forget the fact that her career is going places, forget that she's head-over-heels in love with a

George wants the pact fulfilled and will stop at nothing to get his way.

Can I do become I don't? Or will it all end horribly ever after?
