Kelly Archer is a southern California short-sale specialist. His wealth of knowledge bleeds into his desire to help others through difficult economic times. Kelly has a true understanding of how negatively the economic crisis has affected millions of Americans. He applies his experience and attention to each case whether it be a short-sale or any other service the client may be in need of, always mindful of the concerns and worries of the client. Kelly Archer has worked in the industry since 1983 he has done and seen all the possible scenarios when it comes to construction, and the real estate market. He started working in the construction field with his father, who was a land developer; then went on to getting his contractors license, ultimately taking over his fathers company. Kelly found that he had a burning desire for something more. This brought him to the conclusion that it would benefit him as well as his clients, to get his brokers license, and to open up a real estate office in southern California. He found that in today's economic market, with the knowledge he possessed, he could possibly assist them by leading them along the gruesome path of near homelessness, to living in a comfortable home that was within their means. Kelly has even taken it a step further and written a book that will teach people how this truly can be done. Written in a way that is easy to understand and is amazingly feasible to duplicate, giving his readers hope and a light at the end of the tunnel. By far the most important read for those suffering and in fear of losing their homes, and having no answers as to where to turn. Kelly just may have the answer you have been waiting for!

This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1920 edition. Excerpt: ...it is alleged that prior to the tender the notes had been placed in the hands of an attorney, the only action claimed to have been taken by him was the publication of the notice of foreclosure, which the answer alleges was published as stated in the petition. The notice is set out in the petition and shows on its face that it was not published until three days after the tender, and does not purport to have been the act of an attorney. It is signed, "H. E. V"right & Company," and states, "The First Publication of this notice shall be on Thursday, to-wit: the 21st day of February, A. D. 1918." In that state of the pleadings we think the motion was properly denied. Whether or not the defendant was entitled to an attorney's fee on the notes is the real question to be determined. The facts as shown by the evidence are: That on December 1, 1917, Keeler Brothers wrote plaintiff as follows: "In answer to your letter of November 29, we have been notified by the holder of the papers that he will expect payment of principal and interest on your notes when they mature--January 10, 1918. We do not feel like carrying this paper ourselves, so advise you to make immediate arrangements elsewhere in order that the present holder of your notes will not have them protested at maturity." And on December 10, 1917, they wrote to plaintiff as follows: "With further reference to our letter to you, dated December 1, 1917, we shall expect you to pay promptly on or before January 10, 1918, at our office in Deliver. your cattle paper which matures at that date. As these papers have been re-discounted in the East and you undoubtedly want to protect yourself from having them protested for non-payment, it is advisable...

Have you recently been served with a civil complaint demanding an answer within approximately 20 days? Was there a summons attached to the complaint demanding you to appear in court on a specified date as well? Normally, when this occurs, the receiver of the complaint and summons begins to panic and usually has absolutely no idea what to do. This book is going to help you not only be able to answer a civil complaint properly, but also provide you with a few loopholes that you can use if you don't want to answer the complaint.

Beginning in 2006, foreclosures of residential home mortgages increased precipitously. Home values dropped, homeowners found themselves underwater, and banks eagerly foreclosed when payments were allegedly late. Homeowners turned to the courts and legal system only to find the system was entirely coopted by lenders and the attorneys who prosecuted foreclosures. In Cook County, homeowners were directed to contact services that ultimately required them to give up important rights, even due process rights like proper service of process afforded every other litigant in every other type of case. Homeowners were diverted into a court-sponsored mediation program that required them to file an answer that admitted away the entire case, unknowingly waiving defenses any competent attorney would have identified. Homeowners seeking help were herded into a training session where the first slide presented asked, "Why am I in foreclosure?" The only answer provided was: "Because you missed a mortgage payment." No discussion was had of false allegations of missed payments or other reasons for foreclosure. In reality, reasons included allegations such as failing to maintain homeowners' insurance and were sometimes false. Homeowners were urged to opt for a "graceful exit" solution--leaving their home earlier than legally required and without an assessment of their legal rights, much less competent representation in litigation. As if official action betraying homeowners were not enough, many of the attorneys holding themselves out as "save your home" lawyers misled consumers. At their worst, attorney-sponsored scams included persuading the homeowner to sign the deed to the home over to the attorney or a crony, requiring the homeowner to pay rent. Attorneys would commonly promise to save the home in exchange for a monthly payment of legal fees, $1,500.00 or more commonly being required. While collecting this money, they would fail to file an appearance, fail to appear in court, and do nothing reasonably calculated to save the home. In fact, the rare times the attorneys did act often resulted in hastening the loss of the home. Homeowners often relied on the attorney without finding out about the fraud for a year or more due to the inherently long foreclosure process. Their first notice nothing was done was often the sheriff's knock on the door to evict them from the home they believed was safe. The scams robbed people of their home equity and $20,000.00 or more in cash that could have enabled them to move to a new home. Homes were lost where they could have been saved with less than ten hours of competent legal work. Homeowners were herded into expensive schemes involving attorneys (or cronies who provided a kickback) taking money for loan modification applications or "forensic loan audits." The loan modification applications could be completed at no cost by highly competent housing counseling agencies certified by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. The forensic audits were almost always expensive, useless, and misleading. For example, they would identify legal violation that did not provide the homeowner with a private cause of action or defense to foreclosure. Homeowners would react to this misinformation combined with incompetent legal representation to dig in their heels for a completely illusory legal battlle, ignoring bona fide options to save the home with a competent attorney or HUD-certified housing counseling agency.Adding insult to injury, many "save your home" scammers targeted people based on race, religion, and national origin. This included misleading advertising on radio shows marketed to African-American and religious communities, reaching out through immigrant networks and churches, advertising in Spanish-language publications, and using culturally-loaded iconography.Homeowners paid many times--hostile court systems, lawyers, and scammers all took a cut. They lost homes and incurred debt.
