Manchuria is a region in East Asia. Depending on the definition of its extent, Manchuria can either refer to a region falling entirely within China, or a larger region today divided between Northeast China and the Russian Far East. To differentiate between the two parts following the latter definition, the Russian part is also known as Outer Manchuria, while the Chinese part is known as Inner ...

Here's the link to a Travel Writing World podcast celebrating what would have been Bruce Chatwin's 80th birthday, featuring myself with Nicholas Shakespeare, Colin Thubron, Sara Wheeler, and Susannah Clapp. I named In Manchuria after Chatwin's seminal In Patagonia, much to the publisher's probably correct chagrin. Pete Hessler's original blurb urged potential buyers: "If you ...
