Wolf Mark - Social Justice Books
I have a few concerns about Wolf Mark being placed into the hands of the general public. First, Joseph Bruchac wrote his novel in an almost parody-like fashion. There are some very cliché scenes, especially when the climax of the book arrives. I think this was done intentionally, but not everyone likes or understands parodies and how they work.

Joseph Bruchac - Wikipedia
By Joseph Bruchac First of all, I've been a fan of fantasy and science fiction for most of my life. One of the happiest weeks of my childhood was when my grown-up cousin Bobby, figuring I was old enough (having turned twelve), showed me his collection of sci-fi and fantasy paperbacks. More than three hundred of them were carelessly stacked on the floor of my uncle Harry's unheated attic.
